In honor of Martin Luther King Jr. Day, Lyman Briggs College will be hosting a workshop for students and faculty on diversity and inclusivity at MSU. Following an introduction and lunch, participants will break into the following discussion groups:

- The role of the Briggs Black Caucus
- Post Ferguson: Demonstrations and Civil Disobedience
- Post Ferguson: Policing and Implicit Bias
- Native Americans in Michigan: Tonto, Mascots, and Casual Discrimination

- January 19, 2015 in C-106 Holmes Hall
- 12pm-1pm: Lunch (lunch will be provided)
- 1pm-2:45pm: Discussion